

PLANS ORDINANCE TO GUIDE CITY ARCHITECT

Contractor Serves Notice Upon Council Proposed Act May Be Initiated.

COUNCIL GIVEN SHORT
NOTICE TO ACCEPT

Desired Measure Would Make
Office Controlled by the Council at Large.

Notice was served upon the City Council this morning by James H. Pedgrift, a contractor residing at 2232 Eleventh avenue, that he proposed to initiate an ordinance as an alternative for that now in effect governing the office of the City Architect. The proposed ordinance, upon which Pedgrift would have the voters pass at a special election, removes the office of the City Architect from the control of the Commissioner of Public Works to that of the council at large, and provides in detail for the manner in which said office shall be conducted.

Pedgrift, after filing his affidavit of intention, withdrew it again until tomorrow, that the members of the City Council might have an opportunity to study his plan, and decide whether they would pass his ordinance without the necessity of his having to call a referendum election. The affidavit will be filed again tomorrow, providing the Council declines at tomorrow's session to pass the Pedgrift ordinance. The Council will then have 5 days in which to reply to Pedgrift and justify the present course in continuing the ordinance under which John J. Donovan has been appointed.

It will require 15 per cent of the qualified electors to call a special election to vote on the ordinance, or 5 per cent to have it submitted at the same time as a general election to the voters. The proposal to initiate this legislation is the outgrowth of the fight of the local architects against the appointment of City Architect J. J. Donovan. Pedgrift offered the following reasons in favor of his proposed ordinance this morning:

1. Said proposed ordinance provides a more efficient and economical method for employment of architects on city buildings.
2. Said proposed ordinance is in accord with the pledge made by the Mayor of said city and representatives of various commercial and civic organizations. By said pledge it was agreed that if bonds were voted for school buildings and municipal auditorium local materials would be used and local architects and laborers would be employed in the erection of all of said buildings, provided same could be secured. That many qualified architects relied upon said pledge for said bond issue.
3. Said proposed ordinance provides for employment of local architects.
4. It prevents the City Architect from parceling out work to architects who will do it for him at the lowest price.
5. It provides for competitive plans if the council so elects.
6. It provides for the payment by the architects of all experts and assistants.
7. It makes the entire cost of said city responsible for the work.

CLEWS TO MURDER SOUGHT BY POLICE

Further Efforts Made to Solve the Tangle in San Francisco.

SAN FRANCISCO, May 21. — The police who are investigating the murder of Isaac Cohen are still looking in the tenement for a clue. The efforts to discover the number of the gold watch taken from the dead man yesterday, prove fruitless and the clew furnished by laundry marks on the handkerchief and the name on the buttonhole likewise led to no further developments.

This morning the detectives turned their attention to a canvass of the neighborhood of the Steiner street house to learn if any one was seen leaving the place on Monday night, May 13, when the crime is believed to have been committed. A man and a woman, probably Cohen and his woman companion, who may have killed him, were seen standing in the doorway of the house at a short time before on Fillmore street, but no one has reported having seen any one leave the house since.

It could be determined that a woman had left the premises at midnight or after, it would seem certain that she was Cohen's woman companion. A description of her would help materially. An effort to obtain photographs of thumb marks and fingerprints will be made by the officials of the identification bureau today.

Arthur Fuhim, one of the employers of Isaac Cohen was appointed guardian of the latter's son, Maurice, by Superior Judge Graham, today. The appointment was made in order to safeguard the $50,000 legacy which will fall to the lad. The inquest will be held tomorrow morning at 10 o'clock.

poison of the same nature which was used in killing Avis Linnell. Attorney Morse advised Warden Bridges to make public the receipt of the poisons. Richeson was innocent of any knowledge of the sending, the attorney said.

Brother to Get Richeson's Body

BOSTON, May 21.—Douglas Richeson of Chicago, brother of Clarence V. T. Richeson, claimed the body today. Before the body could be turned over to relatives it was necessary for Dr. George B. McGrath, medical examiner of Suffolk county, to permit the autopsy required by law. This he planned to do during the forenoon. Reports that the brain and other organs of the executed man might be given to the medical institutions and medical specialists for examination and study were declared untrue by Dr. McGrath.

Richeson's body will be taken back to his old home in Virginia. If his wishes are carried out, and will be buried at the little cemetery at Armistead Court house. The last words of the man are committed to the grave will be said by Rev. Herbert S. Johnson of Boston, who acted as Richeson's spiritual adviser after he had been taken to the death house. One of the last requests made by Richeson was that the Rev. Johnson accompany the body to Virginia. The pastor also will carry messages from the executed murderer to his relatives. Richeson left no will, but in conversation with the Rev. Johnson and William A. Morse, his counsel, during the hours preceding his death, he gave directions also the disposal of his personal effects. Richeson left his library to clerical friends.

Slayer Tortured by Horrible Nightmare

DENVER, Colo., May 21.—Oscar Cohen, murderer, condemned to die in November, rose from his cot in the condemned cell in the county jail at midnight and hoarsely called his guard.

"Has that preacher Richeson been electrocuted yet?" Cohen called sleep thinking of him. Can't you telephone the newspapers and find out if he died like a man or a dog. See if he had to be carried in. Is it easier than being hanged? Do you think I have any chance of getting out of this chair before November?" He refused to return to his bed, declaring that horrible nightmares filled his dreams.

Death Too Slow, Witness Declares

CAMBRIDGE, Mass., May 21.—Dr. George B. McGrath, medical examiner of Suffolk county, one of the witnesses at the Richeson electrocution, will recommend several important changes in the manner of putting murderers to death. He believes deaths should be brought on more quickly and by the prisoner himself. He expects that eventually a chair will be devised in which the prisoner will bring about his own execution, the function of his body being to throw on the current and bringing death.

Pastor Confessed Murder of Girl, Who Was in Way

The crime for which Clarence Virgil Thompson Richeson, at the time of his arrest pastor of the Immanuel Church of Cambridge, was sentenced to die in the electric chair, was the confessed murder of a girl, who was in the way of his marriage to Miss Violet Edmonds, of Hyannis, a pupil in the New England Conservatory of Music in Boston.

The girl stood in the way of the minister's marriage to Miss Violet Edmonds, a society girl and actress of Brooklyn, both through an engagement which still existed between the two and because of a condition in which Miss Edmonds found herself. The girl, who was in the way of the marriage, was killed by Richeson, who she believed would remedy that condition and died in her room at the Young Women's Christian Association, on the evening of October 14, 1911. On that day invitations had been issued for the wedding ceremony which was to unite Rev. Mr. Richeson and Miss Edmonds.

As pastor of a small church in the Cape Cod town of Hyannis two years before, the handsome and eloquent minister, then 33 years old, had been at Linnell, of Hyannis, a pupil in the New England Conservatory of Music in Boston.

JOHN RICHESON'S CHURCH. Miss Linnell joined Richeson's church, was baptized by him and became a member of the church choir. In a short time, early in 1909, Miss Linnell was diagnosed as having cancer of the breast. Her friends, who were all Hyannis, told her that she was to be married to the minister the following October. Abandoning her plan of becoming a school teacher, Miss Linnell began preparations for her wedding. Some of her friends were concerned in the fact that she was to be married to a man who was a member of the church and was a member of the church.

Two days before the wedding, a woman came to the police station and told of seeing the pastor and the weeping girl sitting together in a restaurant on the same evening. The police, taking definite action, in taking definite action.

The evening of October 13 Chief Inspector Dunn and members of his force went to the home of Mr. Edmonds on Devon street, in Brookline, to arrest Rev. Mr. Richeson. Before leaving the house was denied, although the hour was early. The police had no search warrant and did not feel justified in breaking into the magnificent residence upon the uncertainty of Richeson being inside. They therefore remained on guard through the night, frequently knocking upon doors and windows and calling upon the occupants to open and admit the officers.

WEEPS HYSTERICALLY. The weary night was kept up until daylight, when a maid who appeared in the kitchen was prevailed upon to notify Mr. Edmonds that the officers were outside and would break in if the door was not opened at once. At 7 o'clock the police were admitted. Richeson was found in bed. He was ordered to dress and accompany the officers. Before leaving the house he took in his arms Miss Violet Edmonds, who was weeping hysterically. "Do not worry," he said, "everything will come out all right. The minister came out of the house in the murky dawn, passing between two rows of police, newsmen and curious neighbors, and was taken to police headquarters in Boston in a taxicab to be arraigned.

The case was set for October 31 for a hearing and Richeson was committed to the Charles street jail without bail. Within a few days the wedding invitations of the minister and Miss Edmonds, summing the Edmonds home on October 31, were recalled.

Before the day of the hearing arrived, a scandalous rumor spread that Richeson had been indicted for the murder of a girl. In five counts was found Richeson was taken into court to plead to the charge of murder. He pleaded guilty and was married to Miss Edmonds. The a nearby town to a woman in Salt Lake City, Utah. His resignation followed and he accepted a call to the Immanuel Baptist church of Cambridge.

Miss Linnell went to the Conservatory of Music in Boston. She was induced to attend the conservatory by her father in the idea that by the cultivation of her voice, which had given signs of much promise in the Hyannis church choir, she would better herself and become a wife. On the minister's recommendation the girl took a room at the Young Women's Christian Association quarters on Warrenton street, Boston. She proved a diligent student and continued her church work by teaching in the Sunday school of Tremont Temple, the leading Baptist church of the city. There were frequent meetings between Miss Linnell and Richeson.

COURTS HEIRS. The success which the young preacher attained in his larger sphere of usefulness made a marked impression upon him. Surrounded by influential friends and associates his ambitions widened. He began to pay court to Miss Violet Edmonds of Brookline, the daughter of Moses Grant Edmonds, a prominent Baptist layman and trustee of the Newton Theological Seminary, from which Richeson had graduated. Miss Edmonds was prominent socially and was wealthy in her own right, as well as entitled to share in the estate of some $500,000 left by her grandfather. Entrance to the exclusive home of the Edmonds had been easy to the minister as the pastor of the church the family attended, and in a short time he was accepted as suitor for the daughter's hand.

At the same time Richeson was meeting Miss Linnell as formerly. But one day he borrowed the diamond ring he had given her, on the pretext that the stone needed resetting. He did not return. Eventually the newspapers announced the engagement of Rev. Mr. Richeson and Miss Violet Edmonds. The minister promptly declared the story a "newspaper fake" and was rebuffed.

The invitations to the wedding of Richeson and Miss Edmonds were sent out the afternoon of Saturday, October 14. That same afternoon Richeson died at Avis Linnell at a little restaurant in the Back Bay. While there the girl appeared depressed. At times tears rolled down her cheeks. When she returned to her lodging place, however, she seemed cheerful, although quickly excusing herself and hurrying away to her room.

IN DEATH AGONY. Groans were heard coming from a bathroom of the apartment quarters after 7 o'clock that evening. The door was broken in and Miss Linnell was found lying on the floor, unconscious and apparently in great agony. Half an hour later she died without recovering consciousness. A belief that the girl had committed suicide was at first prevalent, but her body was disposed to discredit the report, and a thorough investigation was made. Soon after the girl died it was learned that someone had been in the room at the time of her death. It was explained as the girl's nearest friend, and informed her of the circumstances. He coldly denied at first that he knew the girl at all. Then, finally, admitting that she had been a member of his former parish in Hyannis, he suggested that her brother-in-law in Brookline, before she died, had been in the room before she died. "Did she say anything before she died?"

The theory of suicide was dispelled when the real conditions surrounding the death of Miss Linnell were made known. The girl had been sitting in a chair with her feet in a tub of hot water, while beside her was a fresh change of clothing. The autopsy revealed the fact that she had taken a dose of poison and the conclusion was drawn that she had been aided by a fresh change of clothing. In the innocent belief that it would remedy a condition that later would be a cause of great embarrassment.

ON THE DAY OF THE girl's death Rev. Mr. Richeson preached what was to be his last sermon in the Cambridge church, and in his prayer referred briefly to the death of the girl. That afternoon, dining with a member of his parish in Somerville, he was able to eat but little and spent most of the time on a couch in apparent mental misery. He explained that he was overcome by the recent death of a "dear friend." That night he went to the home of his father in Brookline, father of the girl to whom he was to be married a week or so later, and there remained in seclusion through the next few days preceding his death.

Scores of police and newspaper men took up the mystery of the death of Avis Linnell, and the girl's body was found in a room at the hotel in a suicide theory was one which the murderer had planned to foster. Given the crime and the real facts for the murder, the police had not far to seek to find the murderer. The newspapers made no pretence at mystery in directing their inquiries to the girl had but one sweetheart and she made no concealment of her affection for Richeson.

POISON "TO KILL DOG." In a week's time material evidence began to accumulate. A woman declared that Richeson had telephoned from her room at the hotel at 10 o'clock on the afternoon of October 14 with someone at the Young Women's Christian Association rooms. Richeson's landlady admitted her husband had returned to his room with the remark that she had better watch it thoroughly as it had been used to mix mustard which had contained poison. The mustard which had contained poison came from William Hahn, a druggist of Newton Centre and a friend of Richeson. According to Hahn, Richeson died four days before the Linnell girl died and bought a considerable quantity of cyanide of potassium, explaining that he wanted to "kill a dog which was eating his baby's puppies." A Cambridge confectioner told of Richeson coming to his store on the afternoon of October 14 and purchasing a peculiar shaped tin of candy identical with a jar found in Miss Linnell's room. The minister had taken a candy store. A woman came to the police station and told of seeing the pastor and the weeping girl sitting together in a restaurant on the same evening. The police, taking definite action, in taking definite action.

trial of the case was set for January 15. Richeson had early written to his church asking that judgment be suspended until after the grand jury sitting. On November 1 he was found guilty of the murder of the girl, and on November 2, after a stormy meeting, refused to accept it. Later a second letter of resignation was sent and accepted on November 24.

BODY DISINTERRED. The police had even at this time far from a satisfactory case against Richeson. The container of the poison which Miss Linnell had taken was not found. It was believed some vial or box might have been left in the pocket of Miss Linnell's ballroom, which had been discarded by her. On October 24 and brought to Boston for a post-mortem examination by two prominent physicians. The cause of death was confirmed, but no additional evidence was found.

At the same time the police began an investigation into the life of Richeson. Every important act of his life from the date of his birth at Rose Hill, Va., 35 years ago, until his advent in Cambridge to teach in the Cambridge public in local academy. Three years later he went to Liberty, Mo., and entered William Jewell College to study for the ministry. He was a member of the Cambridge public in Kansas City, Mo.; St. Louis, Mo.; St. Paul, Minn.; and other places.

INVOLVED WITH WOMEN. Richeson's life had not been an undisturbed one, it was learned, and many facts were related of his entanglements with women. He was married, it was said, while in William Jewell College, he had been engaged to the daughter of a professor. The young woman left Richeson to go to the time of his coming to Hyannis believed she was to be his wife. In the meantime, however, he had become involved with a woman who was a member of the church and was a member of the church.

While at Budd Park Baptist Church in Kansas City, Richeson became involved with a woman. One Sunday he appeared unexpectedly during the church service. Richeson, upon seeing her, fell in a faint. The woman, who was a member of the church, was a member of the church. A note to the deacons explained that he had been driven away by jealous women.

SERVICE INTERRUPTED. At another church three young women interrupted the service one Sunday. Simultaneously rising, each inquired of the minister if he intended to carry out his promise to marry her. The sensation led the deacons of the church to write to the pastor's resignation. Richeson entered Newton Theological Seminary in the fall of 1906 and graduated in 1908. During his course he was a member of the church. He was called to the Hyannis church in 1909 and remained there until June, 1910, when he resigned. He was a member of the church. A note to the deacons explained that he had been driven away by jealous women.

ment anguish I recognize there is still, by the mercy of the Master, some remnant of the divine spark of goodness still lingering with me. I could wish to live only because within some prison walls I might, in some small measure, redeem my sinful past, help my despairing soul, and at last find favor with my God.

You are instructed to deliver this to the district attorney or to the judge of the court. Sincerely yours, CLARENCE V. T. RICHESON.

PLEADS GUILTY.

Richeson was taken into court on January 9, pleaded guilty of the murder of Avis Linnell and was sentenced to be electrocuted at the Charlestown state prison in the week beginning May 13.

A negro murderer, Henry H. Butts, has been the constant companion of Richeson since his act of self-mutilation. The negro has taken a certain pride in serving Richeson, who has become so attached to the attentions of Butts that the negro has been allowed to remain in solitary on the part of members of the Richeson family in Virginia and as to peculiar acts and traits of the prisoner.

ASKS FOR LIFE.

Richeson, on April 25, sent a petition for commutation of sentence to Governor Fox. It read:

"I respectfully request that the sentence of death pronounced against me by the Superior Court for the county of Suffolk be commuted to imprisonment for life, and I leave the presentation of this request and the reasons in support thereof with my counsel."

"CLARENCE V. T. RICHESON." Simultaneously with the presentation of the petition, Counsel William A. Morse and Philip R. Dunbar of Boston and John L. Lee of Lynchburg, Va., filed numerous depositions relating to evidence of insanity on the part of members of the Richeson family in Virginia and as to peculiar acts and traits of the prisoner.

LIGHTHOUSE TENDER HITS UNCHARTED ROCK; LOST

Sole Survivor of Haydn Brown Is in the Wreck of Government Vessel

CORVOVA, Alaska, May 21.—The United States lighthouse tender Armoria is ashore near Cape Hinchinbrook and is being pounded to pieces by the waves. The 26 persons aboard the Armoria, including seven officers, 28 men and one survivor of the crew of the lost barge Haydn Brown, were taken off by the steamship Admiral Sampson, which picked up the wireless distress signal of the government vessel.

The Admiral Sampson reported the loss of the Armoria and gave the following information: The Armoria had solved the fate of the Haydn Brown, which was cut adrift by the tug Pioneer, during a terrific storm in Prince William Sound, May 10. The Haydn Brown, which was supposed to have foundered at once, drifted ashore on Montague Island, in the entrance to the sound, May 12. Only two of the eight men aboard the barge reached shore and one died of exposure the next day. The other seven survivors lived on canned beef until picked up by the Armoria.

The Admiral Sampson arrived here late yesterday with the 26 survivors of the two wrecks.

STRIKES UNCHARTED ROCK.

According to the Sampson, the Armoria early yesterday was approaching the shore of Hinchinbrook island to load supplies for the Cape Hinchinbrook light. The lighthouse tender had cast her anchor and while riding the heavy swell a terrific jar was felt throughout the vessel as her hull was swept against my uncharted rock. Within a few minutes water began to pour into the engine room and it was seen that the vessel was seriously damaged. The anchor was raised and the Armoria was started at full speed for English Bay. She had gone for about a mile when the engine room was submerged the bollers. Captain Gregory headed at once for shore and beached the steamer at Rock Point.

The Armoria was exposed to the pounding seas and Cape Gregory, realizing that his vessel would go to pieces, sent signals to the Admiral Sampson, which had just passed, and ordered all to enter the small boats. The Armoria's people were taken aboard the Sampson without mishap.

DEAD MEN AND LIVE BEARS.

August Palmer, the only survivor of the Haydn Brown, was picked up Friday by the Armoria after he had lived five days on Montague Island, with two dead mariners and several ferocious Kodiak bears as his only companions subsisting on three cans of beef, which were washed ashore.

Palmer's hands and face were severely cut and bruised and he was weak with hunger and exposure when rescued by the Armoria.

"Those on the Haydn Brown were not surprised when the Armoria came to pick up the vessel as small as the tug could have weathered such a storm with a tow," said Palmer. "We were not alarmed when the tow line parted as the barge was able to weather any storm and we did not know we were so close to land. We lost sight of the tug a few minutes after she cut us loose and we feared she had foundered."

"During the first night the weather moderated and the next day we could see the coast. The tug came close to us. We expected the tug to come all day but when night came on and with it a stiff northeast gale we were still without assistance. That night and Sunday the barge rolled and tossed helplessly in the heavy sea and we had no idea of our position, the driving rain shutting out all view of land until 8 o'clock Sunday night."

COMPANION DIES.

"Neither Westerlund nor I had any matches and we set out to look for shelter but Westerlund soon found it difficult to walk. He thought his leg was broken but I do not believe it was, for he was able to hobble along. He couldn't look up with my face so I ran ahead and found a sheltered place and waited for him. When he did not come I went back to look for him and found him lying dead a few yards from the shore."

"Monday broke beautiful and clear so I dried some blankets that were washed ashore and wrapped myself in them while the waves were breaking. No trace was left of the barge and I could find no more of the wreckage. I searched along the beach for a few days and found three cans of beef, which was the only food I had the five days I was on the island."

"I saw a small stream within three miles of shore but did not see the table cloth I had tied to a tree as a distress signal. I walked a day and night but no other vessels came in sight until the Armoria came to place a light on Zerkoff Point, about 10 miles from where the Haydn Brown was wrecked. I saw her anchor there and walked down the beach and they took me aboard."

"Twice while alone on the island I saw big Kodiak bear nearby and I hid under a rock until they disappeared. The redoubt cutter Manning has been advised by the bodies of the bodies of the Armoria and will probably go to our rescue. Palmer and six of the crew of the Armoria will go back on tug to get the wreckage of the lighthouse equipment with which she was loaded. The weather is now clear and calm but the Armoria lies in an extremely exposed position and will soon break up as there is always a heavy swell there and storms are frequent."

SEATTLE, May 21.—The lighthouse tender Armoria left Juneau, Alaska, May 4, on a cruise along the Southern Alaska coast to establish new aids to navigation.

The barge Haydn Brown, formerly the tug Pioneer, was cut adrift by the tug Pioneer and was lost. It was feared that nothing further would ever be heard of the barge as it was so close to land. It was found Sunday that the barge had foundered soon after the tug left.

Of the 26 persons on the barge known to have been lost, two were taken aboard at the whaling station and their names are not known here. The others were: L. O. Barker, master; Chris Jensen and J. Martin, sailors; K. Kawahara, cook.

YOU BUST LIMIT; LIMIT BUSTS CAR

New Device in Chicago Will Automatically Arrest the Auto Scorchers.

CHICAGO, May 21.—Drivers of motor-propelled vehicles may be arrested automatically for exceeding the speed limit here in the near future. If a suggestion made to a committee of the city council, engaged in framing a new ordinance to prevent reckless driving is acted upon favorably, their attention has been called to a device which will automatically sound a warning if a machine goes out of a certain speed. Then if the driver does not check his pace within a certain time, metallic checks, bearing the number of the machine, are dropped automatically onto the street, making escape from arrest almost impossible.

After the tags have dropped out any further effort to operate the machine will result in the alarm sounding. The device is sealed by the police and the only place it can be opened and thus prevent the alarm is at a police station.

PRUSSIAN PRINCE INSTANTLY KILLED

Son of Duke of Cumberland Meets Death When Auto Overturns.

FRIEDRICH, Prussia, May 21.—Prince George William, the eldest son of the Duke of Cumberland, and his chamberlain, Von Greve, were instantly killed in an automobile accident on the highway near here last evening. They left Berlin early in the afternoon, intending to proceed to Copenhagen to attend the funeral of the prince's uncle, the late King Frederick VIII.

The prince, who was at the steering wheel, probably failed to observe the signs of warning that the highway was being repaired, and drove the machine at full speed into a part of the roadway which was being macadamized. He lost control, the machine being ditched and turning on its end.

The prince's head was crushed. Chamberlain Von Greve's neck was broken. The chauffeur, who was inside the automobile, suffered from a broken arm.

Prince George William was born in 1880. His father, Duke Ernest August, Duke of Cumberland and Duke of Brunswick, Lüneburg, is head of the house of Guelph.

FOUR GENERATIONS AT HUNDRETH BIRTHDAY

RED BLUFF, May 21.—Henry Philander West celebrated his 100th birthday at Red Bluff in the home of his grandson, Henry Todd. Present were his daughter, aged 72, six married grandchildren and seven great grandchildren, one of them married.

West was born in West Hartwick, N. Y., May 19, 1812, and has lived in Tehama county since 1875. His grandfather died at the age of 108, his mother lived to 101, and his grandfather on his mother's side died at the age of 114. A sister died three years ago, aged 94 years.

He is the only surviving member of a family of four generations, seven sons and seven girls. His ancestors came to America in the Mayflower, and were then known as De Wests.

West is a first cousin to Alexander Hamilton.

DREAM PROMPTS SUICIDE.

PHOENIXVILLE, Pa., May 21.—Tortured for weeks by a constantly recurring dream, in which was pictured a funeral cortege with a hearse opened to receive a casket that was being carried from the house in which he lived, Peter Lutzicki cut his throat with a razor yesterday and died shortly afterward.

Presbyterian Laymen Urged to Secure Candidates for Ministry.

LOUISVILLE, May 21.—After the declaration that 2000 churches in the United States "were pastorless" had been made in the general assembly of the Northern Presbyterian church, resolutions were adopted urging all Presbyterian commissioners (laymen) to keep in close touch with young men who might be candidates for the ministry. Rev. Joseph W. Cochran of Philadelphia, addressing a ministers' living conference, said: "We hear that a man to be a minister must starve. I never knew that to be true. I will admit the salaries are not princely, but it can't be remedied by this very assembly."

Dr. Henry J. Becker of Dayton, O., interrupted: "Hundreds of gray-haired men of the ministry annually are dismissed or cast aside," he said. "Men of brains, education and good record are dismissed for no other reason than that they are 'too old.' To this Dr. Becker attributed the gradual decline of successful candidates for the ministry."

BIG DIRIGIBLE REACHES ALTITUDE OF 9860 FEET

PARIS, May 21.—A dirigible balloon yesterday performed the remarkable feat of ascending to a height of 9860 feet, part of the ascension being made in a driving rainstorm. La-motte Brull, in a new Clement-Bayard dirigible, made the trip.

The record altitude for an aeroplane is 18,943 feet, and dirigibles were supposed to be unable to reach any great height owing to their unwieldiness.

HOLDS FELONS EXEMPT

RIVERSIDE, May 21.—A man convicted of a felony cannot be compelled under the law to support his children, even if he is free at the time on probation. This was the ruling rendered by the State Court of Appeals in the case of Frank Smith, a native-born man from San Quentin. The appellate court ruled that a child's parent was not recognized legally when that parent was under a felony charge or conviction.

Uncle Sam Plans Profitable Farms

Demonstration Work to Show Farmers How and What Pays to Market.

WASHINGTON, May 21.—Secretary of Agriculture Wilson has announced plans to be instituted for farm management, study and work in the North, for which both houses of Congress have made provision in the agricultural appropriation bill. This plan corresponds to the co-operative demonstration work in the South.

The Federal government, through its agents, who will act in co-operation with state and local inspectors, purposes to make a comprehensive study of the farms of the country, with a view to carrying to the farmer information which will show him why a certain branch of his industry is unprofitable and how he can make it pay. It is not, of course, that he should drop that branch.

GOVERNMENT WORKERS WILL BE ORGANIZED

WASHINGTON, May 21.—Plans for an organization of government employees to embrace all divisions of the government service in all parts of the country are being formulated by Geo. L. Cain, of Lynn, Mass., president of the National League of Government Employees. Cain is in this city now arranging to have a delegation appeal to the national Republican and Democratic conventions to incorporate in their platform a pledge as to the future administration of the civil service.

LOTS OF SOFT, FLUFFY, LUSTROUS HAIR AND NEVER ANY DANDRUFF

You Can Double the Beauty of Your Hair in Ten Minutes With a Little Danderine.

When you see a head of heavy hair that glistens with beauty and is radiant with life; has an incomparable softness and is fluffy and lustrous, you can at once conclude that this man or woman is using Danderine, because nothing else accomplishes so much for the hair.

Just one application of Knowlton's Danderine will double the beauty of your hair, besides it immediately detangles and dissolves every particle of dandruff; you cannot have nice, heavy, healthy hair if you have dandruff. This destructive scurf robs the hair of its lustre, its strength and its very life, and if not overcome it produces a feverishness and itching of the scalp; the hair roots loosen, loosen and die; then the hair falls out fast.

If your hair has been neglected and is thin, faded, dry, scraggy or too oily, don't hesitate but get a 25-cent bottle of Knowlton's Danderine at any drug store or toilet counter; apply a little as directed and ten minutes after you will say this was the best investment you ever made.

We sincerely believe, regardless of everything else advertised that if you desire soft, lustrous, beautiful hair and loathe itchy, no dandruff, no itching scalp and no more falling hair—you must use Knowlton's Danderine. If eventually—why not now? A 25-cent bottle will truly amaze you.

CAPTAIN C. W. SHREVE, PIONEER, IS DEAD

ST. JOSEPH, Mo., May 21.—Captain C. W. Shreve, aged 79 years, grandson of Colonel Israel Shreve, one of Washington's closest friends and favorite colonels, is dead at White Cloud, Mo. He was a pioneer of Nebraska and one of the five men who, in 1855, organized the Republican party in Nebraska.

MURDERER DENIED CLEMENCY.

SALT LAKE, Utah, May 21.—The board of pardons refused yesterday to commute the sentence of Julius Sirmay, condemned to be shot on Wednesday for the murder of a schoolboy whose home he was robbing.

SCORE OF REDMEN WATCH MURDER TRIAL

REDDING, May 21.—Twenty or more Indians in the Superior Court added color to the opening of the murder trial of Mike Harum and Wilson Harum, father and son. Only five of the aborigines are to be called as witnesses. The rest are present out of curiosity and to keep company.

The Harums are charged with the murder of Deputy Constable William Blake near Fall River Mills on November 24 last, whom they shot and mortally wounded while resisting arrest. In the exchange of shots between the Indians and officers, Blake and Edward Lansing, the latter was slightly wounded, and part of Wilson Harum's nose was shot away. The Indians escaped and were caught at Lovelock, Nev., in January. They have been in jail here since.

In one particular this trial is without a precedent in this State. Wilson Harum, aged 18, is deaf and dumb and is, but little better informed than Ishi, the Butte county aborigine. He can communicate with others only by a rude sign language that is understood only by his father and other Indians. His testimony is expected to be interesting.

ABDUL HAMID AND THE GIFT THAT DID NOT PLEASE HIM.

Terrible old Turk!

But what is the use of calling him names now? He seems to be harmless enough, if indeed he is yet alive.

What was the matter with the old chap, anyhow? What was the trouble with the system that he dominated? Why, he hated light.

He was an owl or a bat; a lover of darkness.

Just one little incident will prove it.

One day, after his hurry-up-get-off-chronic, good-bidance-to-bad-rubbish leave-taking, some young Turk was rummaging through his old palace, and in a dark corner of some closet, where the ladies of the harem kept their belongings, he found

A Remington Typewriter!

A strange prison for a Remington! And it wasn't worn out. It was brand new.

It wasn't long before it found its way back to the Remington office, the records were looked up, and this is the story.

Some years ago the Zionist Society, which was actively planning to colonize Palestine, was desirous of propitiating the Sultan with unusual and costly gifts. So some of its officers purchased a Remington Typewriter, equipped with Arabic characters, and, with as much dignity and ceremony as possible, presented it to old A. Hamid, thinking to please him greatly.

What a present that was to give to old Abdul! Why, it blinded him. There was intelligence, civilization, freedom, staring him in the face.

Here was a machine which would have given hoary Turkey a new birth of light and life. To him it was like the printing press—anathema; an engine of revolution. No wonder he flung it from him and hid it away among the women, who themselves never see the light of day.

Among the women, to whom of course it meant nothing! What a tremendous contrast between the women of the Orient and the women of the West!

This contrast has its concrete expression in the typewriter, the machine whose work as the great emancipator of the sex has been among the most notable of its triumphs.

FOR YOUR HAIR

Here Are Facts We Want You to Prove at Our Risk.

Marvelous as it may seem, Rexall "93" Hair Tonic has grown hair on heads that were once bald. Of course, it is understood that in none of these cases were the hair roots dead nor had the scalp taken on a glazed, shiny appearance.

When the roots of the hair are entirely dead and the pores of the scalp glazed over, we do not believe that anything can restore their growth.

When Rexall "93" Hair Tonic will do as above stated, it is not strange that we have such great faith in it, and that we claim it will prevent baldness when used in time. It acts scientifically, destroying the germs, which are usually responsible for baldness. It penetrates to the roots of the hair, stimulating and nourishing them. It is a most pleasant toilet necessity. Is delicately perfumed and will not sum nor permanently stain the hair.

We want you to get a bottle of Rexall "93" Hair Tonic and use it as directed. If it does not relieve scalp irritation, remove dandruff, prevent the hair from falling out and promote an increased growth of hair and in every way give entire satisfaction, simply come back and tell us and without question or formality we will hand back to you every penny you paid us for it.

We lend our endorsement to Rexall "93" Hair Tonic and sell it on this guarantee, because we believe it is the best hair tonic ever discovered. It comes in two sizes, prices 50 cents and $1.00. Remember, you can obtain it only at the Owl Drug Co. stores in Oakland, San Francisco, Los Angeles, Sacramento, Portland, Seattle, Spokane.

YOUTHFUL BANDIT FELS HIS VICTIM

Stranger in San Francisco Is Assaulted Near Police Headquarters.

SAN FRANCISCO, May 21.—A boy bandit using a blunt instrument for a weapon attempted robbery in Portsmouth Square, in front of police headquarters, at 2 o'clock this morning. George H. Smith, a stranger in the city, was walking across the park when the youth, who is described as about 10, stepped from behind a tree and, without warning, struck his victim.

Smith fell dazed for a second, but as his assailant began to go through his pockets, he screamed for aid. The square is at the edge of the Oriental quarter and several Chinese answered the cries. The thug turned and ran, and a policeman who came up soon after conveyed Smith to the Harbor hospital, where a wound in his scalp was dressed.

KNIGHTS OF BROOM MADE HAPPY BY INCREASED PAY

School Janitors' Salary Raised, but Not So the Principals

There are going to be nearly twenty happy school janitors in Oakland if recommendations of the finance committee made last night are adopted by the Board of Education when that body holds its regular session tomorrow evening. Raises of salary were advocated in nearly every department under jurisdiction of the board in an effort made to adjust matters for the coming fiscal year.

After discussion which lasted for three hours the whole salary list was gone over. There was some contention between the members of the committee as to whether the principals of the Fremont high and the Oakland high should receive the same salary as the principal of the Oakland high school, the largest institution.

Director Annie Florence Brown made a motion that the two smaller schools should be placed on the same salary basis as the Oakland high. Under the salary schedule of last year the principal of the school gets $3,800 per year, while the other two receive $3,000. Miss Brown made a stand for eliminating the third vice-principal in the Oakland high, declaring that the other two high schools had but two vice-principals. She lost her point, however, and Commercial high school should receive the same salary as the principal of the Oakland high school, the largest institution.

want to change her vote when the matter came up for final disposition on Thursday evening. The three vice-principals in Oakland high were also allowed to vote, although Directors Brown and Forrest voted in the negative on the proposition.

When it came to a matter of adjusting the salaries of janitors and in particular reference to the knight of the broom in Oakland high, Director Brown suggested that the third vice-principal be made supervising janitor. "That is one of the dirtiest buildings in the city," said Miss Brown, "and one of the most difficult to keep clean. I am serious when I suggest that the third vice-principal be given the duty of deciding when the school has been thoroughly dusted."

"And let the real janitor do all the work," interposed Director Forrest.

A few changes were recommended in the teachers' salaries and the principal of the Washington school will probably receive a raise in salary from $2,900 to $2,400 per annum owing to an increase in the size of the school. Director A. S. Kelly, the medical member of the board, strongly supported the department of health and hygiene when discussion arose as to whether that department should not be discontinued as a saving in expense. He was supported by Director Boyle and convincing arguments were made to the effect that the department was one of the most efficient under the direction of the board. Dr. Kelly said that Dr. N. K. Foster, the medical director, was doing a great work among the children in the city.

The salaries of seven nurses in the department were not altered and it was pointed out that that number were able to handle the work to good advantage. Director Forrest raised a question of legality in the granting of $450 per annum as traveling expenses for the superintendent of schools, citing the provisions of the charter. Chairman Branner of the committee pointed out that the funds were not derived under the charter, so that the appropriation, which was made last year, will be recommended.

WILLIAM FINNEGAN, WHOM THE TRIBUNE ASKS THE PUBLIC TO AID IN MAKING SELF-SUPPORTING.

Crippled Youth, Who Insists on Earning His Own Living, Will Be Helped

The ball is started. Now watch the pennies roll in and the William Finnegan chair fund climb quickly to the point that will make the young cripple as independent as his courage and ambition deserve.

In case you are one of the few who don't know all about it, William Finnegan is a young inmate of the County Hospital, who has lost both legs and undergirds cheerfully sixteen different operations in the last few years. Finnegan does not want to be a county charge. He believes, despite the apparent cruelty of fate, that there is still a place for him amongst his more lucky brethren in the battle for bread. He does not want money, but he does want a certain chair, which Dr. C. A. Wiley, of the County Infirmary, says will enable the youth to carry out his ambition and sell newspapers on the streets of Oakland.

Finnegan asked the Supervisors to get it for him but, though they wanted to, there were legal snags in the way and so for Kelley started a subscription and THE TRIBUNE called for assistance from its good-hearted subscribers. Less than $100 is needed.

The following donations are already acknowledged in addition to $5 held by Supervisor Kelley:

SAN FRANCISCO, May 21.—Lafayette von Perhacs was sentenced to seven years in San Quentin penitentiary this morning. Von Perhacs was charged with a statutory offense by Katherine Clark, a young woman who had been taken into the household. It was alleged that the wife of the accused was cognizant of the illegal relations existing between the girl and the middle aged man. He was vigorously prosecuted by the police. Following his conviction, Mrs. von Perhacs, overcome by shame and humiliation died. Every effort was made to have him released on probation, but this measure was opposed by the father of the complaining witness, who said in court, "I would not oppose probation if she had killed my daughter, but for the crime that he has committed. I cannot think that it is just."

Sturdy New Craft Launched in Estuary by Local Engineering Works.

The last portion of the new tug Golden Eagle was completed today, and late this afternoon the little craft slipped from the ways of the Gorham Engineering Works, where she has been for the past few months, and splashed into the waters of the estuary. The launching was witnessed by several prominent waterfront men, all of whom admired the craft. She rode the water easily and appears to be well-equipped for towing, for which purpose she was built. The new vessel was built for the Halvorsen & Carting Company of San Francisco and will go into commission soon. She is 35 feet long, 14 feet wide and has a draft of 6 feet. She will be propelled by a 70-horsepower Gorham engine.

The keel for a new 55-foot tug boat was laid yesterday afternoon at the yards of the Gorham Engineering Works. The new boat is being built for the Arctic Drilling Company, San Francisco, and will be ready for commission in 20 days. The boat will be 56 feet in length, 9 feet

SUMMER SESSIONS AT MT. HERMON

Noted Visitors and Speakers to Attend Federate Missions School.

The summer sessions of the Mount Hermon Federate School of Missions will be held at Mount Hermon in the Santa Cruz mountains, July 22-29. Delightful meetings are anticipated. Mrs. D. B. Wells, who taught the study classes last year in so interesting a manner, will be present this year and will conduct a daily Bible period, and also will teach the classes in the two new denominational text books, viz. "Christ's New Day," by Dr. Isaac T. Heald, and "The long residence in Pekin allowed him to become cognizant of many graphic details not generally known, and "The mission of the Church of America," by Dr. Bruce K. Hines, formerly superintendent of Baptist missions in Utah. A registration fee of one dollar will be charged at the summer school this year, this fee entitling the one registering to a copy of each text book, badge, programs, etc.

Among the noted visitors who will speak at Mount Hermon will be Mrs. G. W. Coleman of the Council of Women for Home Missions. This organization was formed in 1906 by nine denominational boards and societies, the Baptist, Christian, Congregational, Lutheran, Methodist Episcopal, M. E. South, Presbyterian, Reformed, United Brethren, Unitarian, and Universalist. Six summer conferences have been held with the council, viz.: East Northfield, Mass.; Wilkes-Barre, Pa.; Lake Minnetonka, Minn.; Boulder, Colorado; Omaha, Neb.; and Mount Hermon, California. This Council of Women publishes the home mission text books. Mrs. Coleman, who is also chairman of the New England branch of the Women's American Baptist Home Missions Society, is visiting all the affiliated summer schools and will speak at Mount Hermon.

Methods in young women's missionary work will receive special attention this year, and Mrs. L. E. Hickey, for many years a teacher in the Baptist college at Rangoon, Burma, is expected to take charge of the young people's sessions. Mrs. Hickey is a brilliant and interesting speaker, as those who know her well will give her course of lectures on world religions at the Oakland Y. W. C. A.

Mrs. M. E. Harlan, national corresponding secretary of the Christian women, will speak one evening, and it is hoped that Rev. Ng. Poon Chew, the Chinese editor and orator, will give an address another evening. Missionaries of different boards will be present, and the week will be full of delightfully informing speeches from those who bring news from different quarters of the earth. Mrs. R. D. Beach of Oakland is the president of Mount Hermon Federate School of Missions.

STUDENT PAGEANT HELD BY Y. W. C. A.

National Board and Territorial Committee Meet in Business Sessions.

PLEASANTON, May 21.—The leading events of the grand assembly of the territorial conference of the Y. W. C. A. were the student pageant this afternoon and the sessions of the national board, the territorial committee and the appointment of officers and club girls during the morning hours. Bible classes and mission study classes were also held. The leaders of the mission study classes and their subjects follow: Decisive hour—Professor George Irving Clement; China—Deaconess Anita Hodgkins; Light of the World—Professor Charles Patterson; Conservation of National Ideals—Miss Bernice Waltz; Japan—Miss Edith Graves.

The first part of the day's activities closed with a grand assembly of association representatives in the tent auditorium to listen to an address by Dr. John Willis Bass. Following the luncheon hour a leaders' conference was held preceding the pageant.

A large number of visitors and philanthropic workers from San Francisco, Oakland and other bay cities, arrived here this morning on their way to the Heart of Asia where Mrs. Phyllis A. Hearst was prepared to receive them, the drawing card being the pageant planned for the afternoon. The students' parade were falls, bumps and bruises during the entire evening. If there is anything that will occasion a big laugh it is to watch the contortions of dignified gentlemen on rollers for the first time.

Although there is no band at Idora at the present time this popular amusement park will continue to draw large crowds.
The various amusement devices prove attractive to the many visitors. The spacious skating rink and the numerous amusement concessions are operating full blast and serve to supply the fun making element at the "Park Beautiful."

AGUIRRE EXPECTS TO RETAIN HIS DEPUTYSHIP

BERKELEY, May 21.—On June 1
Warden Reilly of Folsom prison will step down and James A. Johnston will assume charge in his stead. It is understood there will be few, if any, changes in the present staff of the prison. Deputy Warden Joseph A. Aguirre, whose family has resided in this city for the past 10 years, is expected to be retained in his position.

Aguirre has been engaged in prison work since 1899, previous to which time he was deputy sheriff of Los Angeles county. Aguirre has achieved considerable fame as a linguist, having an in-imate knowledge of Spanish, French and Italian, besides English. He has contributed numerous articles and short stories to various magazines of the country.

Mrs. Wm. A. Allen, Chacon, New Mex., had so severe a cough that it nearly choked her to death. Mr. Allen says:
"We tried many things without helping her when by good luck I got a bottle of Foley's Honey and Tar Compound. It helped her at once and finally cured her.
It is the best medicine we ever used."

What Wonderful Power These Men Have Over Diseases

Rev. Francis Schlatter, Rev. D. H. Schrader, D. D., of the Divine Congregational Church, now located at 626 15th street Oakland.

WORLD'S GREATEST HEALERS In Denver, Colo., they cured thousands of all ills that the flesh is heir to, by laying on of hands, prayer and the blessing of handkerchiefs.

Rev. Schlatter. Rev. Schrader. The most mysterious, wonderful, miraculous healing power of the age is possessed by these two great men, Rev. Francis Schlatter and the Most Right Rev. D. H. Schrader, D. D. When all science and skill have failed to reach all known sickness and diseases are cured. No operations, no drugs, God's divine gift, which is the most mysterious gift of all. Everybody who is sick is invited to come regardless of your faith or belief. Every one is welcome.

Come to us and be cured. See what the people say about us. Mr. Herman Lindahl, 520 Court street, says surely these great men have saved my life. The doctors all had given me up as a hopeless man, never to recover. I went to see these divine healers and they surely cured me. I was shot, and general weakness was my affliction. I will make this statement before any notary.

M. A. Moreno, 748 Yale street, cured of dizziness, headaches and stomach troubles by means standing by Rev. Francis Schlatter.

Miss Eleanor May Pancake, 143 West Carr street, cured of sprained wrist and nervousness by Rev. Schlatter.

M. L. Kinsey, 44 1/2 North Beaudry avenue, very bad stomach and general breakdown. He will tell anyone what Rev. Schlatter and Rev. Schrader have done for him and his wife.

Mrs. Minnie Whiteside, 1024 1/2 Overton street, says I am proud that I am cured of my double rupture. When all had failed I went to the Revs. Schlatter and Schrader and they cured me by laying on of hands and prayer.

Mrs. Anna Green, 143 West Carr street, cured of a blood tumor of many years' standing and was given up by the best doctors that she could never be cured. She came to Rev. Francis Schlatter and she was entirely cured by prayer.

This is to certify that I, William Matzke, have tried everything I heard of in medicines of all kinds, and Chinese-herb specialists of all kinds, and all have failed to do me any good whatever, and I went to Revs. Schlatter and Schrader and I cannot praise their high enough for what they have done for me.—William Matzke, 1970 Myra avenue.

August Dahl, 520 Court street, cured of nervousness for many years' standing by Rev. Francis Schlatter and Rev. D. H. Schrader, D. D., by prayer.

Miss Irene Green of Venice, Cal., unable to speak above a whisper for five years, entirely cured by Rev. Schlatter's prayer when all else had failed.

Mrs. Paul McCue, 369 York boulevard, cured of suppressed menstruation by prayer at Rev. Francis Schlatter's place.

Mrs. Campasano, San Pedro and Ninth street, was in critical condition with consumption and all the doctors could do nothing for her. All they said to her, your case is incurable. Her husband then brought her to Rev. Schlatter and he cured her. John Kinsey, 315 West Fifteenth street, says I am cured of cancer by Rev. Schlatter.

Mrs. Eliza Plans, 6414 South Hoover street, says after suffering with the most severe stomach trouble for ten months, I heard of Rev. Francis Schlatter and Rev. D. H. Schrader, D. D., and they prayed for me and cured me sound and well.

Willie Devoez, 725 South Spring street, cured of rickets in the legs in an instant by Rev. Schlatter while at the above number.

W. L. Withman, 650 South Spring street, says the doctors gave him up to die with consumption. He came to the Rev. Francis Schlatter and Rev. D. H. Schrader and was entirely cured.

Mrs. J. Frank Zittel, 3465 East Sixth street, says when Rev. Francis Schlatter was in Denver, Colo., in 1896, we were living in Cleveland, Ohio. We had 200 handkerchiefs blessed by him, whereby my grandmother was cured of neuralgia of the worst form for many years' standing. My aunt was cured of rheumatism in her arm. And I was cured of a large bony growth of the leg.

Thomas Callister, 106 East Fifty-sixth street, says I came here from New Zealand to get cured of consumption, but all doctors failed to help me. I went to Rev. Francis Schlatter and Rev. Schrader and they have cured me in a short time. So now I can go where I like.

Mrs. Davis, 1324 South Los Angeles street, cured of tumor. Stanley and of nervousness by Rev. Francis Schlatter.

Mrs. H. Hubbard cured of tumor for years' standing.

Mrs. F. Carter, of Macon, Ga., was cured of blindness. Rev. Francis Schlatter and Rev. Schrader just arrived in Oakland and has located at 626 Fifteenth street.

Elaborate Plans Being Made for Coming Celebration

The Elks of Alameda county are making enthusiastic preparations for the coming convention, which will be celebrated in Portland, July next. The reunion is expected to eclipse anything ever held by the order in former years.

The Portland Elks have raised $125,000 for the entertainment fund. Preparatory to leaving for Portland, the Oakland Elks are arranging for one last social event.

The Oakland Elks will hold an annual ball and exhibition drill of "The White Oaks" team in Maple Hall next Tuesday.

Colonel J. K. Ritter, J. N. Bonham, W. C. Moran, W. H. Wollard, R. H. Hamilton, E. J. Adams and R. H. Hammond are the committee of arrangements. The "White Oaks Team" will compete in Portland in July.

San Francisco and Los Angeles Elks are making elaborate arrangements to make a big showing in the northern city, and not to be outdone by Oakland, Alameda and Berkeley lodges, which have joined forces, will co-operate in establishing an Alameda county headquarters at Portland.

An open house will be maintained at the Hotel Portland during the entire week of the convention. Oakland's famous drill team will be accompanied by a forty-piece band.

There will be a special high class vaudeville arranged to take place at the Macdonough Theater on Friday and Saturday evenings, June 7 and 8, for the purpose of raising funds to defray incidental expenses of the convention. Max Horvinski, W. E. Varcoe and W. L. Woodward will superintend the arrangements of the coming benefit.

DON'T GROW BALD YOUNG MAN!

Take Care of Your Hair While You Have Hair to Take Care Of.

It's a safe bet to one bet that the young man who uses PARISIAN SAGE as an occasional hair dressing will never grow bald.

There's a reason, of course, and it's a very good and sufficient one. Dandruff germs cause falling hair and falling hair means thinner hair and in due time baldness.

PARISIAN SAGE prevents baldness, by destroying the cause of baldness—the little persistent voracious dandruff germ.

If you have dandruff or itching scalp it means that dandruff germs are clogging the vitality from the roots of your hair. Get rid of all hair troubles by using PARISIAN SAGE.

It is not a dye, mind you, neither does it contain poisonous sugar of lead or even sulphur. PARISIAN SAGE is a scientific preparation that abolishes dandruff, stops falling hair and scalp itch, and makes hair grow lustrous and luxuriant.

Many young women as well as men are growing bald and for the same reason.

The delightful, refreshing PARISIAN SAGE: It nourishes the hair roots, if the roots are not dead, and brings to every user a head of glorious hair—radiant and fascinating. Large bottle for 50 cents at drug and department stores and toilet goods counters. See that you get PARISIAN SAGE. The girl with the auburn hair is on every carton and bottle. Osgood Bros. guarantee it.

CONFER ON SUIT AGAINST BOARD

Superintendent McClmonds and Deputy District Attorney Meet.

Conference between Superintendent of Schools J. W. McClmonds and Deputy District Attorney Walter J. Burpee was held this afternoon in regard to the injunction proceedings which have been brought against the Board of Education by George A. Waterbury, representing a school desk supply firm which was disappointed in having its bid on school desks accepted by the board last week.

Whether or not the board can determine just what kind of a desk it wants is a question that will have to be settled. In advertising for bids it is declared by the contending firm that the specifications were illegally drawn in that they were vague and indefinite and further that they eliminated competition by describing one particular brand and style of desk.

That the word "etc." included in the description of the desks is the hinge upon which the complaining firm will base its arguments is believed by the members of the school board.

Secretary McClmonds claims that "etc." meant certain qualifications of the desk not included in other makes and that it was not necessary to designate "same," and is adverse to reopening the matter again and being forced to advertise for new bids. The desk purchased is declared to be the one desired by the Board of Education and it is presumed that the specifications were drawn accordingly.

Whether the board has a right to advertise for bids in that manner would seem to be the question that will have to be settled by the courts.

SEEK AUTOS FOR INVALID VETERANS

Memorial Day Committee of G. A. R. Make Plea to Owners.

EDITOR TRIBUNE: The Grand Army of the Republic, through its committee, desires to present to the citizens of Oakland who are owners of automobiles the fact that the infirmities of age, together with wounds and disease received in the civil war, render many of our comrades unable to visit of their own volition the street cars and other public conveyances to call upon all generous owners of automobiles to contribute the use of the same to carry the veterans needing assistance to and from all cemeteries during the coming Memorial Day, May 30th.

Excursions will be conducted in Mount View Cemetery between 10 and 12 a. m. and in Evergreen Cemetery between 3 and 5 p. m. Automobiles will leave Lincoln Hall at 9:30 a. m. and 2:30 p. m. All persons willing to contribute the use of their automobiles for this occasion are requested to notify J. H. Lamson, care of E. W. Woodward, 925 Broadway, and have automobiles report to the committee at Lincoln Hall for either morning or afternoon exercises.

We solicit a generous response. THE COMMITTEE.

TEACHER IS ACQUITTED OF CRUELTY CHARGES

PRINCIPAL IS EXONERATED TWICE

The School Board and Court Decide E. N. Mabrey Is Not Guilty.

Boy Exhibits Bloody Shirt and Blue Back During the Hearing.

Principal E. N. Mabrey of the Hayward grammar school was yesterday exonerated from two sets of charges of having administered unjustifiable punishment upon his pupils. The first set of charges were heard in the form of a battery complaint preferred by Joseph Lamb, an old resident of Hayward, in connection with the whipping of his son, Walter, aged 13, until the blood came.

Principal Mabrey admitted the fact, but declared that he had not intended to administer so severe a punishment, and that, if anything, the severity of the chastisement was an error in judgment and not a matter of intentional cruelty. Principal Mabrey was found not guilty of battery by Justice Charles Prowse. There is no law in California either permitting or prohibiting the administering of corporal punishment to children by their teachers, according to Attorney Peter J. Crosby, who appeared for Principal Mabrey.

Mabrey was later exonerated before the school directors of similar charges in the case of Harold Dutra, a 16-year-old boy. There are other charges to be preferred, Herman G. Walker declaring that he will continue his fight against Mabrey.

The entire town of Hayward is in a turmoil over the controversy and yesterday the small courtroom was thronged with school children, teachers and parents, who came to see the principal on trial. Frequent outbursts of applause greeted various portions of the testimony and had to be stifled by Constable Ramage.

Every available inch of space was taken in the courtroom and ladders were placed against the side of the building and faces pressed against the windows in an effort to see. The housewives adjoining were also thronged with eager spectators.

TWO "STRAPPINGS." Walter Lamb, the 13-year-old boy who was whipped to the state hospital, came off his face" was placed on the witness stand by Attorney Phil M. Carey. The boy testified that he had been strapped May 13 for breaking school rules, first by his teacher, Miss Elizabeth Fordue, and then by Principal Mabrey.

The boy told how he had kept a brave face through his chastisement, and that then Principal Mabrey had declared "I'll smooth you out." and the whipping was administered a week ago, the bruises still stood out in long black lines across the boy's back, five black lines to mark the strokes he had received. His shirt and undershirt were marked with the rawhide and the cuts made by the rawhide and the blood stains from one of the wounds were pointed out.

ADmits GUILT. Under cross-examination by Peter J. Crosby, attorney for the school, the boy frankly admitted that he had been guilty of breaking school rules, that he had been playing in the schoolroom during the teacher's absence, and that he had known at the time he was breaking the rules, and asked why he had not cried when punished. Walter answered that "he did not want to cry before the principal."

Dr. E. G. Reynolds was placed upon the stand and testified to having treated the boy's wounds. He stated that when he examined the boy the welts were of the width of his little finger and blood was issuing from one of the cuts. The bruises, he said, were five in number and were from 3 to 6 inches in length.

Under cross-examination an attempt was made by Attorney Crosby to prove bias on the part of the physician.

"Did you not have a personal grievance against Mr. Mabrey?" asked Crosby.

"I did not, and neither you nor he can prove anything of the kind," declared Dr. Reynolds.

FATHER TESTIFIES. Joseph Lamb, the father of the boy, stated that he had taken the boy to the doctor and explained that he had not removed his son's shirt or made any change in his clothes until the boy had been shown to Dr. Reynolds and to several of the school trustees.

Under cross-examination Lamb stated that he had visited F. I. Lemos, president of the school board. On the following day Lamb testified that he had met Attorney Herman G. Walker and had taken the matter of a prosecution up with him.

Walker was called back to the stand and after examining the two shirts stated that they were at the time of the court hearing in the same condition as they were immediately after the whipping. He stated that the holes shown in the two shirts had been cut in the hands of Mabrey.

UPPER VIEW IS A SCENE IN THE COURTROOM OF JUSTICE OF THE PEACE CHARLES PROWSE, SHOWING PRINCIPAL MABREY AND HIS ATTORNEY, PETER CROSBY. BELOW IS A PORTRAIT OF PRINCIPAL E. N. MABREY, MRS. JOSEPH LAMB AND HER SON WALTER. MABREY WAS ACQUITTED OF HAVING CRUELLY CHASTISED THE BOY WALTER.

MOTHER ON WITNESS STAND.

Mrs. Lamb testified as to a conversation with Mabrey. She had asked Mabrey why he had cut the boy's back so brutally, and Mabrey had denied striking the boy severely. Mrs. Lamb had then asked Mabrey to examine the boy's back, but this the principal had refused to do, she said.

Under a volley of questions from Attorney Crosby, Mrs. Lamb broke down upon the witness stand and cried, covering her face with her handkerchief.

Miss Elizabeth Fordue, the boy's teacher, was called to the stand and testified concerning the scene of the whipping.

"I took the boy to the office and explained the case to Mr. Mabrey and afterwards strapped the boy three times, and the boy took it as a joke. Then Mr. Mabrey took the strap and struck him five times. The boy still bore a defiant air and Mr. Mabrey took the rawhide and struck the boy about five times. I did not know that any wounds were inflicted until Wednesday following the whipping."

MABREY TESTIFIES.

Principal Mabrey took the stand in his own defense. "I had occasion to punish the boy and I did so," he said. "I rely in such cases on the reports of the teachers. The boy admitted the charges of his teacher. My use of the whip was due to his demeanor of defiance. He had a smirking grin on his face and his attitude was that of a joke. I said to him, 'We will settle this, if you take it as a joke.' I struck him four or five times, until the grin came off, and I did not know that I drew blood."

SECOND EXONERATION.

The second exoneration of Mabrey was carried through before the school board when the school directors declared the charges to be groundless.

The second hearing, that before the school board, took place in the large auditorium of the school. The school building is a fine one, usually accommodating about 900 children in the grammar grades. To Mabrey's credit, the building is kept in apple-pie order. Not a scratch appears upon the walls, not a speck of dust upon the ledges, not a scrap of paper upon the floor. The school building is like a battleship cleared for action.

The charges heard by the school board were out of alleged dogging administered some eight months ago to Harold Dutra, a 16-year-old boy, who was kept out of school thereafter by his father, Manuel Dutra, because he did not wish his son to be punished as Mabrey's whipping post, and because "Mabrey had put his brand on the boy."

To disprove the statements of the boy, Principal Mabrey presented the school "whipping book" in evidence. The "whipping book" is Mabrey's private record of the corporal chastisements inflicted upon his charges. The "whipping book" showed that although the Dutra boy had received from one to two whippings a month during six months, no corporal punishment had been administered from May 22 to September, 1911, during which time the boy declared he had been whipped several times.

The school board of Hayward is composed of F. I. Lemos (president), A. B. Petersen and A. W. Bean.

LEMONS PRESIDES.

President Lemos opened the meeting. He said:

"This meeting has been called for the purpose of making an investigation of some charges preferred against E. N. Mabrey, principal of the Hayward grammar school, by Manuel Dutra. I hope that in conducting this investigation no personalities shall be indulged in."

"Mr. Walker is counsel for Mr. Dutra. With his consent, I will read the charges."

The charges in part follow:

"My son Harold was so severely whipped by Principal Mabrey that he fled from the school, the thrashing being administered because he did not stay in line while marching with other children. Further, that at other times he was whipped for carrying while outside the school. Another source of complaint is that Mabrey, when he found that the boy would not be allowed to return to school, signed a release card which read to the effect that he could not read or write the English language. Also that young Dutra is still suffering from the effects of the inhuman whipping."

BOY IS QUESTIONED.

Herman Walker began the investigation for Dutra. He said:

"In order that the matter may be carried through as quickly as possible, Mr. Dutra has asked me to ask the boy a series of questions. It has been charged that the removal of the boy from school was because of his failure to read and write the English language. I have here some exhibits of the boy's work."

WALKER INTRODUCED AS EVIDENCE

several examples of the boy's writing in English. The boy stated that he was 16 years of age.

The boy testified that he had been whipped several times by Mabrey, once with a heavy strap on the hands, and once with a heavy blacksnake on the legs. He gave me two good cracks on the legs with that," said he.

The boy stated that he had been whipped for turning round in line, and once for swearing out on the roadway when another boy stole a ball from him.

PAINFUL HE SAYS.

The boy stated that once when he felt the pain occasioned from the beating he had received from Mabrey, as this had left permanent ill effects, he declared

Attorney Peter J. Crosby, representing Mabrey, cross-examined the boy. Using a record of various whippings administered by Mabrey from May, 1911, to September of the same year, the attorney attempted to prove that the last time the boy was punished was May 22, 1911, when his teacher, Miss Jensen, whipped him on the hands, delivering three blows on each hand.

The record showed a systematic method of chastisement. Once a week the boy flogged for talking in line and then lying about it." At another time the thrashing was for the general offense of "continued disobedience." The boy received three blows on each hand, two of which were for one part of the offense and the rest for "lying about it."

WALKER PROTESTS.

Attorney Walker remonstrated with Crosby for attempting to torture the boy in his statements.

"I submit that you should remember that you are talking with a boy and not with a man who can defend himself."

FATHER TESTIFIES.

Manuel Dutra, the father of the boy, was the next witness. Dutra explained that he had received a certificate from Principal Mabrey certifying that the boy could not write simple English sentences. Dutra testified that at the time Mabrey issued this certificate the boy could read and write. He explained that he had obtained the certificate from Mabrey because the boy had been so persistently flogged that he feared for the boy.

"I noticed that the boy was limping," said Dutra. "Then at night I heard the boy whimpering in bed. I asked the boy what was the matter, and he said that Mr. Mabrey had whipped him."

"I went to the school and told Mr. Mabrey I wanted to take Harold out of school. I had examined the boy's body and had found it bruised. I asked Mr. Mabrey if the boy was the black sheep of the school. Then he said:

"All these black Portuguese ought to go back to their own country."

LEMONS QUESTIONS BOY.

President Lemos took up the questioning of the boy, as follows:

"Did you ask your father to get that certificate?"

"Why did you want to leave school?"

"Because I did not wish to be Mr. Mabrey's whipping post," answered the boy. Mabrey then took the stand. The first question was directed to the book.

"Why do you keep those records of chastisements inflicted?"

"I thought it would be best to keep records of punishments in case complications should arise," Mabrey answered. "I did not want to rely upon my memory."

Mabrey denied the charges made, stating that he had never whipped the boy with a rawhide, and that he had not had the conversations with Dutra reported by the father to have taken place.

GIVES HIS REASONS.

Under examination for his own defense, Mabrey declared in answer to a question as to his issuance of the certificate permitting the boy to leave school that he believed that a child leaving school when in the fourth grade could not become a good public citizen. He stated that for this reason in issuing the certificate he had certified that the boy could not read and write English. Mabrey explained that he had an elevated idea of what citizenship should be and that for that reason he had certified that the boy could not read and write because he was only in the high fourth grade and therefore could never become a good citizen.

"Is that an arbitrary rule made by you?" queried Walker.

"I suppose it is," responded Mabrey. "I believe that when a boy leaves school while in the fourth grade he cannot read and understand the Declaration of Independence, or the Constitution of the United States."

Mabrey admitted that his rule that he should certify that the boy could not read or write was operative whether or not a matter of fact the boy could actually read and write or not. This the principal admitted, was an iron clad rule.

Crosby then led Principal Mabrey through a lengthy mass of questions concerning school discipline to prove that a fire drill made it a necessary measure to drill the children to march in line.

SEVEN FLOGGINGS.

Mabrey stated that the Dutra boy was not a "very bad boy," and had not given his teachers much trouble. He stated that the boy had been flogged only seven times from September, 1910, to May, 1911. These punishments were as follows:

September 21, September 23, November 29, and December 9 in 1910, and April 17, May 18 and May 22 in 1911.

Attorney Walker suggested that the charges against Mabrey be taken up with the Humane Society of Oakland. He said:

"I will not advise the Lamb or Dutra parents to take any particular action but if they see fit to push the charges with the Humane Society in Oakland I will be of what service I can to them."

CITY WATER TO BE HERE IN A YEAR

Mayor Mott Declares Municipal System Will Be Secured Soon.

"The city will own and operate its own waterworks within a year," declared Mayor Frank K. Mott before the city council today. "If all goes well and there are no hitches in the procedure, we will be in possession of a municipal water system by that time. I have every hope that this plan will be consummated within that time limit."

Mayor Mott made this declaration in answer to the requests of F. W. S. Brooks, 2208 Hopkins street, who represented a number of residents of the annexed district in filing a complaint with the city council this morning that the water supply and the fire protection in the annexed district are inadequate. It was admitted by the council that the fire hydrants were few and far between, and that the force was inadequate, and the mayor promised to take it up with the water company immediately in the hope of having water mains extended and enlarged.

"We are now engaged in fixing the water rates," declared Mayor Mott. "During our negotiations we will take up the matter of better fire protection with the Peoples Water Company. But this will probably be the last time we will have to depend upon a corporation in this matter, as I hope that within a year we will be in possession of our own water works."

BELGIAN ROYAL FAMILY DENIES RUMORED SCANDAL

Prosecute Alleged Slanderer for Coupling King's Name With That of Chambermaid

BRUSSELS, Belgium, May 21.—A semi-official communication dealing with alleged false reports as to the private life of the royal family has been issued in the following terms:

"Since a recent garden party held at Laken, calumnious rumors have been put in circulation concerning the private life of the royal family. It was even declared that on the day of the garden party the queen of the Belgians surprised King Albert in the company of a chambermaid and that the queen shot the woman dead with a revolver."

"King Albert had no knowledge of these reports, although for several days military officers attached to the court had learned of them by telephone calls, both from Belgium and abroad. After consultation it was decided to acquaint the king with the report. His majesty was astonished and very indignant. He decided to prosecute the authors of the reports and all persons repeating them."

"Criminal proceedings were instituted this afternoon before the king's procurator."

THREE ARE PROSECUTED. The newspaper Le Peuple understands that three persons, whose names are not given, are being prosecuted for circulating the slanders, which take three forms.

According to the first, the queen surprised the king in the company of a chambermaid and killed the latter. According to the second, the queen fired upon the king, while the third report makes it appear as if the queen merely threatened the chambermaid.

The king's private secretary in a statement says:

"Of course the stories are quite unfounded, although, because of my position, I cannot be considered a partial witness. I can emphatically declare that the happiness of the royal family has never been disturbed and the king and queen are a most happy couple."

PUBLIC WROUGHT UP. Public opinion is greatly wrought up over the slanders and their author. It is believed possible that the slanders had origin in a recent below-stairs scandal at the palace, involving a lady's maid in attendance on one of the queen's ladies in waiting and a court servant. The maid in question died in childbirth a few days ago about the time reports concerning the king began to circulate, and it is thought this incident may bear correlation to the rumors affecting the royal family.

CONFERENCE TO HOLD NIGHT SESSIONS

Selection of Bishops Still Far From Being as Yet Completed.

Many Drop Out to Give Way for Others; Two May Be Named Today.

MINNEAPOLIS, Minn., May 21.—Indications that the conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church will attempt to keep to its resolution of reaching an adjournment May 28 were evidenced in the night sessions, begun last night, to cast a ballot for bishops. It is probable that even with the election of one or two men today, which hardly is expected by the delegates, that another night session will be held tonight in order that three instead of two ballots may be taken in a day.

Since the first ballot, on which Dr. Homer C. Stuntz was elected, numerous men have headed the no-election ballots for a time only to give way when it seemed that the necessary two-thirds vote of the delegates present could not be obtained.

Dr. D. G. Downey of New York went well to the fore on the second ballot, but he gave way to Dr. W. O. Shepard of Chicago, who, in turn, later dropped to second place, yielding first position to Dr. T. S. Henderson of Brooklyn, N. Y.

MANY DROP OUT. Candidates constantly are dropping out, although on the eighth ballot there were about 20 who received only two or three votes. The total number of candidates voted on in the eighth was 79, but by the end of the week this number is expected to be considerably smaller as those who have been casting complimentary ballots consider really in the race.

Among the candidates is W. F. Oldham, who holds the distinction of being a bishop in the church. His title, however, is that of missionary bishop. His power is restricted to his own field, which is Malaysia. As a missionary bishop he also lacks power to preside at a session of the general conference.

With no election declared, Dr. T. S. Henderson of New York East conference was high man on the ninth ballot in the fight for a place on the board. Dr. Henderson received 451 votes, 516 being necessary to elect. W. O. Shepard of Chicago was second, with 448, and R. J. Cooke, New York, third, with 353.

Two Burglars Slain In Desperate Fight

One Wounded Criminal Is Shot Dead by Fleeing Companion.

NAUEN, Germany, May 21.—The example of the Apaches who recently terrorized Paris and its environs has been followed by criminals here. Two of them, detected, last night while committing burglaries, dashed to their bicycles, which had been left outside the house. On the way they were confronted by a policeman, who they shot dead. They then rode rapidly away, but pursuers wounded one of the bandits. His comrade then deliberately killed the wounded man to prevent his capture and possible betrayal. The surviving burglar continued the battle against some hundreds of armed police and countrymen until he finally was shot dead.

Mother of Young West Berke- ley Groom May Demand Annulment.

REBECCA, MAY, 21.—The new highway marriage at Santa Rosa last Friday of Laurence Rosano of West Berkeley and Rebecca May Riley of Albany was terminated by Mrs. Rosano, mother of the groom, in a suit of annulment. She declares her son is but 19, despite the fact that he swore to 21 years when he secured his license, and she threatens court proceedings to set aside the nuptial decree.

The courtship of the young couple was rather brief. At month, the parents of the groom objecting to his taking a wife at his early age. The young man finally packed up his belongings, went to Pat-sent, and the young lady of his choice, Willingly she went, and they were united at Santa Rosa.

Not of the elopement and marriage was sent at once by the happy pair to their respective homes. Mrs. Wozney, although her daughter's absence, had been on the point of reporting her missing to the police, but the incident was averted. posals of the bonds. He has replied to all that the usual form of disposing of the same will be followed and bonds will be received for the entire issue.

UNIFORM STATIONERY FOR OFFICIAL OAKLAND

Recommendation was made by the city expert, L. G. Jordan, this morning that the stationery used by all departments and officials in the city should be made uniform and that the names of officials should not appear on the stationery when originally purchased, but should be stamped or printed on the uniform city stationery as convenient.

The suggestion was approved as an economical one by Commissioner of Finance John Forrest, but was opposed by Mayor Frank E. Holt, who declared, that it was more dignified that the official's name should appear on the letterhead of official correspondence. The matter was taken under advisement.

GOSSIP FOR FANS WHO LIKE GOOD OLD GAME

Baseball Followers Harp on Playing of Seals While Others Seek Opinions of New Ball

San Francisco, May 19, 1912.
SPORTING EDITOR OAKLAND TRIBUNE:—
In today's TRIBUNE you express yourself as being a disinterested party to the "war" now being waged by the fans against the San Francisco baseball managers. Do you not think that you are in error not to take up the cudgel and strike out for better baseball on the Pacific Coast, for you surely cannot overlook the fact that the class of ball being played today, and particularly by nearly every team in the league, is far inferior to what it was a season ago?

Moreover, you contend that the hitting is far below the standard and that the fielding lacks life and pepper, and base your argument that cork-center balls are far superior to those that have the rubber center core. Why not explain yourself?

Yours respectfully,
A. T. SCHILLER.

The following letter is but one of the many that come to the Sporting Editor. As for joining the "knuckers' brigade" it is another question. It is true that San Francisco ball team is not giving the fans the class of ball they are entitled to, but the bosses of the Seals have at least tried or are trying to put a winner in the field. With this knowledge of baseball, made the mistake of not going to the training camp of the Seals. Many a long has proved on more than one occasion that he is a good judge of a ball player, but is a mighty poor handler of men.

WEED OUT BAD ONES.
One on the outside thinks that all a manager has to do to put a winning ball team in the field is to go out and get ball players. Ball players are easy to get, but good ones are another question, and, moreover, one must have ball players who play for the team, not for themselves.

San Francisco is a hot bed for dissenting ball players and always will be until radical changes are made. A ball manager is holding his job simply because the manager can't find a better one at the present time has no right to find fault with a colleague. Nor has a manager a right to bowl a player out for his mistakes before a thousand fans.

One cannot get by the fact that Mr. Ewing and Mr. Ish spent $12,500 to secure new talent for the team, but they are to be criticized for taking players on "dope" instead of actually seeing them in action. Hartley, Baker, Corhan, Jackson, Taylor, Toner, McVicker and Battersby, some of them are good and some of them are bad. Then why not cut the bad ones?

Perhaps all the hubbub now being made against the Seals' bosses, the players and the manager will do the world of good, at least let us hope so.

CORK IS BEST BALL.
As to the argument that the cork center ball is superior to the rubber core one, I am familiar with the game and need not compare the work of the players of last season with those of this as well as the way the game is played in the leagues that use a standard cork center ball and those that use a rubber center ball.

The writer has been interested in the two classes of balls for some little time and he has watched carefully the playing of the game under the rubber center and under the cork center and he has made it a point to interview several of the ball players about the two balls as well as to personally examine the ball now being used in the Coast league.

In yesterday's double header, Oakland made but six hits while San Francisco made 10 and of these 10 hits not one

PACKY AND AD MAY SWAP PUNCHES IN PRIZE RING

New York Promoters Are After Match Offering Big Money for Scrappers.

CHICAGO, May 21.—Ad Wolgast, lightweight champion, and Packy McFarland, rejected last night the first offer made for their appearance in a New York prize ring during the first week in June.

One sporting club manager agreed to give the fighters 55 per cent of the gross receipts. This met with Wolgast's prompt refusal. He said that if McFarland's services were worth $10,000 against Matt Wells, it was worth $20,000 for a champion to risk his title in a fight with a man of the stockyard fighter's ability.

The offer carried consideration of 20 per cent to Wolgast and 30 per cent to McFarland. The latter was a guarantee of $15,000. Both fighters believe that the fight would attract a $50,000 house, and they are optimistic about the match being held. Wolgast's manager, Tom Jones, said he had been asked to meet promoters regarding the proposed match.

It was announced that McFarland has agreed to make 133 pounds at 3 o'clock on the day of the fight.

RIVAL MIDDLEWEIGHTS IN GREAT SHAPE FOR MIX-UP

Petroskey and Morrow Show That They Are Well Conditioned for Ten-Round Scrap Tomorrow Night

By BERT LOWRY.
Howard Morrow, in whom Tommy Ryan sees a middleweight champion, will be put to his real test around the bay tomorrow night when he tackles Sailor Ed Petroskey under the auspices of the Oakland Wheelmen at Piedmont Pavillion. It will mark the third appearance of the Syracuse man in the bay cities. In his initial appearance he was called on to mix with one Kid George and the scrap he put up against the Stockton miller didn't set the world afire by any means. In that bout though, Morrow was badly handicapped by the tactics of George, who as good as refused to fight. Throughout the ten rounds of milling George held on continually and Morrow failed to deliver the blows that he is said to be possessed of.

In his second bout, a four round affair with Jack Fitzgerald, he showed a far better advantage for Fitzgerald stood up and fought and fought well. So well, in fact, that he stood Morrow on his head on a couple of occasions.

Tomorrow night he meets a boy who is about as tough and as game as they come. He has been fighting for some time and has had plenty of time to familiarize himself with the conditions of the ring. He has been fighting for some time and has had plenty of time to familiarize himself with the conditions of the ring.

Morrow will have no chance for excuses. He has been faithfully and well trained by Tommy Ryan, a man who knows the game. He has been fighting for some time and has had plenty of time to familiarize himself with the conditions of the ring.

To his credit must be added that he has shown a willingness to learn and in many ways he has been given a good account of himself and he will not lack backers when he enters the ring. He has been fighting for some time and has had plenty of time to familiarize himself with the conditions of the ring.

While Morrow doesn't fancy waging on mills he says that he is so confident of this time of winning that he will lay a little of the kale on the result of the bout.

NEW TRAINING FOR SAILOR.
When Petroskey climbs through the ropes for tomorrow night's mixup he will be put to the test as to whether he is really a sailor or not. He has been fighting for some time and has had plenty of time to familiarize himself with the conditions of the ring.

Petroskey is a strong, healthy boy, full of ginger and willingness and his game is an open fight and he can hit and he can take a punch as well as he can give one. He has been fighting for some time and has had plenty of time to familiarize himself with the conditions of the ring.

It should be a great mill, with the shade in favor of the Sailor, for Morrow is an open fighter and he can hit and he can take a punch as well as he can give one. He has been fighting for some time and has had plenty of time to familiarize himself with the conditions of the ring.

HARD LUCK FOR BOYS THAT SWAT BALL OVER FENCE

The official scorer at all the league grounds of the Coast was advised yesterday that in the future no hop would be doled out by the tobacco agent for a ball which was made "within the playing enclosure."

This is a hard blow to the players for the production of a ball out of the box of tobacco generally sold it for $2.50. The smallness of the Coast league parks and the eagerness of the players to get a ball out of the box of tobacco generally sold it for $2.50.

ALLEGES CRUELTY ON BOARD SHIP

Steward Brought to Port in Irons and Is Charged With Mutiny.

SAN FRANCISCO, May 21.—Telling a story of alleged cruelties of a revolting nature which he practiced upon him during forty-five days in irons, Joseph Washington, a steward on the steamer Portland, was turned over to the custody of the United States marshal on the arrival of the vessel today.

The harrowing tale of the accused man is detailed by the master, Captain W. A. Webb, who, however, does not want to be quoted in connection with the affair. When the Portland arrived this morning from Norfolk, 183 days out, with a cargo of coal for the government, the patrol boat was sent to take Washington into custody. He immediately protested that the mutiny charge against him was false and said that he would prefer a counter accusation of brutality against Captain Webb.

ALLEGES CRUELTY

"From the minute we left port the captain treated me badly," said Washington. "He found fault with everything that was done and when we reached St. Lucia on February 8 the outrages increased. He displayed a gun in the gallery and threatened me but I remained calm and tried to do my best. On April 5 at Coromandel, Chili, I served him a four-course dinner. He came on board angry and was not satisfied with the meal. Finally in an argument over the milk he threatened me. I took a knife to defend myself and was charged with mutiny. My hands were shackled and my feet were put in irons. I spent the night in a cell that reeked with chloride of lime and by day I was lashed to the mast with the hot sun of the tropics beating down upon me. Washington was in good physical condition on his arrival and his story of alleged brutality was repeated several times with even more harrowing details. Captain Webb declared that the steward was a "mean man and dangerous," and that the methods used against him were justified. He alleges that Washington attacked him with a knife and also went for the first mate, C. W. Hapley.

OVERSOLD MARKET BOOSTS PRICES

Declines on This Side Fails to Disturb the Cable Quotations.

CHICAGO, May 21.—Evidence developed today that the wheat market had been oversold. Accordingly, prices advanced, especially as cable quotations showed power to remain active, despite declines on this side of the Atlantic. The fact that receipts of wheat here were light helped also to attract attention to the possibilities on the bull side, and was word of a big falling off in the wheat yield in India. Opening figures ranged from 1/2 to 1/4 higher. July 1912 at $1.07 1/2 to $1.08 1/2, a gain of 1/4 to 1/2 and rose to $1.07 1/2 to $1.08 1/2 higher at $1.07 1/2 to $1.08 1/2.

Offering dried up in the corn market. Shorts at 1/2 to 1/4 lower and in the aggregate held the market again themselves. July opened to 1/2 to 1/4 at $1.07 1/2 to $1.08 1/2 and closed to 1/2 to 1/4 at $1.07 1/2 to $1.08 1/2.

The close was firm at $1.07 1/2 to $1.08 1/2 for July, a gain of 1/4.

There was right and left purchasing of wheat when that cereal made a dip after outburst. In consequence the early loss was more than overcome. Buyers took this one from the action of one of the largest houses in the trade. July started unchanged to 1/4 down at 47 1/2 to 48 1/2 and rallied to 48 1/2 to 49 1/2. Exports worked higher all around. Packers led the advance. Initial sales varied from 21 to 22 1/2 up with September delivery, $10.20 to $10.25 to $10.30 to $10.35 for land, and $10.37 to $10.42 for sea.

ALLEGES CRUELTY ON BOARD SHIP

Steward Brought to Port in Irons and Is Charged With Mutiny.

SAN FRANCISCO, May 21.—Telling a story of alleged cruelties of a revolting nature which he practiced upon him during forty-five days in irons, Joseph Washington, a steward on the steamer Portland, was turned over to the custody of the United States marshal on the arrival of the vessel today.

ALLEGES CRUELTY

"From the minute we left port the captain treated me badly," said Washington. "He found fault with everything that was done and when we reached St. Lucia on February 8 the outrages increased. He displayed a gun in the gallery and threatened me but I remained calm and tried to do my best. On April 5 at Coromandel, Chili, I served him a four-course dinner. He came on board angry and was not satisfied with the meal. Finally in an argument over the milk he threatened me. I took a knife to defend myself and was charged with mutiny. My hands were shackled and my feet were put in irons. I spent the night in a cell that reeked with chloride of lime and by day I was lashed to the mast with the hot sun of the tropics beating down upon me. Washington was in good physical condition on his arrival and his story of alleged brutality was repeated several times with even more harrowing details. Captain Webb declared that the steward was a "mean man and dangerous," and that the methods used against him were justified. He alleges that Washington attacked him with a knife and also went for the first mate, C. W. Hapley.

SAN FRANCISCO, May 21.—While trying to fix his light without slackening his speed on the Great Highway shortly after 1 o'clock this morning, H. G. Fratch, an operator of the California Film Exchange, was severely injured in a head-on collision between his motorcycle and a taxicab driven by M. A. Goldberg of 624 Hampshire street. Fratch was on his way home and was making good time on the boulevard when the roadway ahead was suddenly plunged into darkness by the failure of his light to work. He tried to right it with one hand and did not notice the fast approach of the machine until it was too late to avoid striking it. His motorcycle was demolished and he was thrown heavily, receiving a broken leg and lacerations and laceration of the body. Goldberg, who drives for the Pacific Taxicab Company, had two passengers in his car and all immediately went to the aid of Fratch, who was hurried to the Park Emergency Hospital.

WOMAN INSPECTOR HERE TO LOOK OVER MINT

SAN FRANCISCO, May 21.—One of the most interesting figures in Uncle Sam's service, Miss Margaret V. Kelly, arrived here yesterday to make a thorough inspection of the mint. She has been clothed by Secretary MacVeagh with unusual powers and at certain times for short intervals controls the making of the government's coin.

Miss Kelly is one of the highest paid women in the government service. She has been connected with the treasury's office in Washington, D. Preston, the mint examiner, is also away, Miss Kelly is in direct charge of all the mints and assay offices of the country.

Miss Kelly will be here for several days, having recently finished an examination of the mint at Denver. She expressed pleasure at the action of Congress in keeping the mint in San Francisco open for coinage.

DOCTOR WANTS DIVORCE; ALSO THREE CHILDREN

Dr. J. Emmet Clark of Alameda, who is suing his wife, Mary Clark, for a divorce on the grounds of cruelty, has asked to be awarded the custody of their three children. The father claims that the mother is influencing the children to dislike him. Some time ago when Mrs. Clark sued her husband for divorce she was awarded guardianship, and it is now asked that these letters be set aside in his favor.

At one time Dr. Clark took one of the children to Sacramento with him, having gone to the family home with an automobile and taking the little one out of the yard while the mother looked on from an upper window. He was forced to return the child and later came back to Oakland himself. Then his wife had him arrested on a charge of non-support. The action is still pending. At that time Mrs. Clark was also suing him for divorce against her for divorce. He further claims that her various attacks on him have ruined his practice until he can scarcely earn a living.

CUPID, PLAYGROUND KING, RETIRES JUVENILE CHIEF

MISS JOHANNE JOHNSON, FORMER DIRECTOR OF BUSHROD PLAYGROUND, WHO HAS ANNOUNCED HER ENGAGEMENT. —Bushnell photo.

Miss Johanne Johnson, a leading playground worker of this city and for the past two years director of the girls' division of Bushrod Park playground, recently announced her engagement to Luther E. Du Bois, a business man of San Jose.

The retiring playground supervisor created many clubs and organizations for the benefit of the children under her charge in Bushrod Park. She was one of the members of the committee which arranged the May day festival in Lakeshore Park, where several thousand people witnessed the presentation of an English pageant and the folk dances. Miss Johnson was a favorite with the youngsters and her co-workers with whom she was in high esteem. Miss Edna Grace Davis, one of the distinguished graduates of the Stanford class of 1910, has been appointed her successor.

While a student in Stanford University, Miss Johnson displayed her qualifications for the playground profession, having attained honors in athletic and gymnastic work. She was awarded the silver medal in fencing at Stanford and was a member of the basketball team in 1909.

The romance held its beginning at Stanford University in 1910, when both students were taking part in the collegiate activities. He was an oarsman in the Stanford crew, which won the Pacific Coast championship and was on the football team of the University of Nevada.

The bride-to-be is the daughter of Mrs. Thea Johnson of Telegraph avenue. She is a brunette of the Gibson type and by her grace of manner has made legions of friends here. She is an Iowa by birth, but received most of her education in California.

Luther Du Bois is a native of Indiana and has made his home in California for a number of years. No date has been set for the wedding but it is supposed that it will be celebrated next month.

LIGHT VOTE IN LIQUOR ELECTION

'Wets' and 'Dry's' of the First Supervisorial District Go to the Polls.

NILES, May 21.—After a strenuous campaign by the "wet" and "dry" camps in Washington, Pleasanton and Murray townships for the last few weeks, the local option election for the First Supervisorial district opened this morning. A few voters going early to the polls. A general agreement between the contending parties voters lacking interest in the issue will not be taken to the polls. In automobiles, as has been the case in the past. This, it is believed, will result in a small vote. The law regarding the use of automobiles in elections was looked up by Deputy District Attorney Leon A. Clark yesterday. He learned that automobiles could be used, providing the persons furnishing the machines did not solicit the votes of those whom they carried to the polls. Should the automobile voters be guilty of a misdemeanor.

The election is confined to the district outside the incorporated towns, with the exception of Pleasanton and Livermore. The existence of about sixty saloons depends on the result of today's election. The nearest interest in the fight has been taken in Washington township, where the liquor interests are heaviest.

Local option was introduced by the provisions of the recently enacted Wylie law. This law provides that no liquor can be sold in the district affected without a physical prescription. The draughts of the district must submit a monthly report of all sales of liquor to the Board of Supervisors. The law is considered one of the most drastic on the statute books.

STEINWAY PIANOS

Constantly Gaining Over All Competitors

Not only did the STEINWAY lead at its very beginning—over half a century ago—but its superiority over the nearest followers and imitators is now greater than ever.

Every valuable feature of piano construction is a STEINWAY invention and is the result of STEINWAY genius applied to the science of sound production.

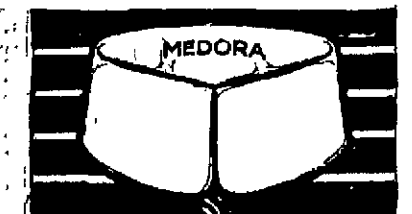

Enthusiastic testimonials written by over a hundred of the leading musicians of the bay territory attest this truth: There is no piano equal in beauty of tone and durability to the STEINWAY.
